CAPTION: Frederica Williams, President and CEO of Whittier Street Health Center, was presented with the 2013 Commonwealth Compact Diversity Stand-Out Award at the 5th Annual Commonwealth Compact Diversity Awards reception, held Tuesday, May 21, 2013 at the UMass Boston campus.

Whittier Street Health Center was selected to receive the award for ‘standing-out’ against other health care sectors for embracing diversity and inclusion and taking bold steps towards change in that arena.

Commonwealth Compact, a project organized by three of Boston's civic and business leaders and supported by several dozen others, is committed to concrete steps aimed at making Boston a welcoming, diverse place to live and work for all people. The 2013 Commonwealth Compact Diversity Stand-Out Award recognizes organizations that embrace diversity and inclusion and work to establish Massachusetts as a uniquely inclusive, honest and supportive community of -- and for -- diverse people.
